

Lady May

Songwriters: Tyler Childers

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yxfo4Jfpc-c>

[Capo 3?]

I'm a C stone's throw from the mill
And I'm a F good walk to the C river
When my F workin' day is C over
We'll go Am swim our C/B cares C away
Put your C toes down in the water
And a F smile across your C face
And tell F me that you love C me
Am Lovely C/B Lady C May

Now I C ain't the sharpest chisel
That your F hands have ever C held
But F darlin' I could love you C well
Til' the Am roll is C/B called on C high
I've C seen my share of trouble
And I've F held my weight in C shame
But I'm F baptized in your C name
Am Lovely C/B Lady C May

Lord the C wind can leave you shiverin'
As it F waltzes o'er the C leaves
It's been F rushin' through my C timber
Til' your Am love brought C/B on the C spring
Now the C mountains all are blushin'
And they F don't know what to C say
'Cept a F good long line of C praises
For my Am Lovely C/B Lady C May

Now I C ain't the toughest hickory
That your F ax has ever C felled
But F I'm a hickory just as C well
I'm a Am hickory C/B all the C same
I came C crashin' through the forest
As you F cut my roots C away
And I F fell a good long C ways
For my Am Lovely C/B Lady C May