[intro] C G F C

C Well, when you're sitting G there in your F silk upholstered C chair
C Talkin' to some G rich folk that you F know C
C Well, I hope you won't see G me in my F ragged C company
C Well, you know I could G never be F alone C

Take me G down little Susie, take me C down
G I know you think you're the queen of the C underground
And you F can send me dead flowers every C morning
F Send me dead flowers by the C mail
F Send me dead flowers at my C wedding
C And I won't forget to put G roses on your F grave C

C Well, when you're G sitting back in your F rose pink Cadillac C
C Making bets on G Kentucky Derby F Day C
C Ah, I'll be in my G basement room with a F needle and a spoon C
C And another girl to G take my pain F away C

Take me G down little Susie, take me C down
G I know you think you're the queen of the C underground
And you F can send me dead flowers every C morning
F Send me dead flowers by the C mail
F Send me dead flowers at my C wedding
C And I won't forget to put G roses on your F grave C

[instrumental] C G F C x4

Take me G down little Susie, take me C down
G I know you think you're the queen of the C underground
And you F can send me dead flowers every C morning
F Send me dead flowers by the C US mail
F Send me dead flowers at my C wedding
C And I won't forget to put G roses on your F grave C

No, C I won't forget to put G roses on your F grave C
