[Chorus]

A Your Mama don't dance and your D Daddy don't rock n' A roll.

D Your Mama don't dance and your Daddy don't rock n' A roll.

E7 When evenin' rolls around and it's D time to go to town,

A where do you go, to rock and roll?

A The old folks say that you D gotta end your day by A ten.

D If you're out on a date and you bring it home late, it's a A sin.

E7 There just ain't no excuse and you know you're D gonna lose and never A win.

I'll say it again, (spoken) and it's all because

[Chorus]

[bridge]

D You pull into a drive-in and D find a place to park.

D You hop into the back seat where D you know it's nice and dark.

D You're just about to move in, D you're thinkin' it's a breeze,

D there's a light in your eye and then a guy says,

D Out of the car, long hair... E7 Louise, you're comin' with me,

D and no more movies!" A

..... and it's all because

[Chorus]

A Where do you go, to rock and roll? 2x
